

Contents

Conference Programme.....	i
Editors' Preface
Michael Lück, Alice Gräupl, Jan Auyong, Marc L. Miller &amp; Mark B. Orams.....	vi
Acknowledgements .....	vii
International Steering Committee.....	xi
Conference Welcome
Jan Auyong.....	x

Keynote Addresses

Ignorance of insight? An integrated and adaptive model for the long term sustainable management of tourist interactions with marine wildlife
James Higham.....	2
The leap of faith: Will ethics in tourism go gently (or rage) into that good night?
David A. Fennell.....	3
Developing Lifeguard Services for Tourist Resorts: Legal, Training and Quality Service Considerations
Jeff Wilks.....	4
Extreme marines: the rise of high risk marine tourism
Mark B. Orams.....	5
Ludic challenges of coastal and marine tourism
Marc L. Miller.....	6

Conference Papers

Theme 1: Marine Wildlife Tourism

Origin and development of whalewatching in the state of Aragua, Venezuela: Laying the groundwork for sustainability Jaime Bolaños-Jiménez, Auristela Villarroel-Marin, E.C.M. Parsons, &amp; Naomi A. Rose .....	16
When and where? The whale-watching industry and the future Rochelle Constantine &amp; Lars Bejder .....	28
Dusky Dolphin ( Lagenorhynchus obscurus ) occurrence patterns near Kaikoura, New Zealand: Observations from tour boats 1995-2006 Adrian Dahood, Bernd Würsig, Zach Vernon, Ian Bradshaw, Dennis Buurman &amp; Lynette Buurman .....	32
‘Jaws or Jawsome’? Exploring the shark-diving experience John Dobson .....	37
Marine wildlife tourism opportunities in Baja California Sara M. Earhart, Maile C. Sullivan &amp; Marc L. Miller .....	50
The sustainable development of the whale watching industry: A case study approach Sophia Foley &amp; Marian Binkley .....	58
Speaking from Experience: Whale and Dolphin Watching Boats as Venues for Marine Conservation Education Paul Forestell &amp; Gregory Kaufman .....	63
The growth of whale and dolphin watching tourism in Oceania Lydia Gibson, Simon O’Connor &amp; Tania Duratovic .....	68
Grunion Greeters in California: Beach Spawning Fish, Coastal Stewardship, Management and Ecotourism Karen Martin, Andrew Staines, Melissa Studer, Chris Stivers, Cassadie Moravek, Phillip Johnson &amp; Jennifer Flannery .....	73
Dolphin watch tourism: A cross-case comparison of two differing examples of sustainable practices and pro-environmental outcomes Gayle Mayes &amp; Harold Richins .....	87
Watching endangered orcas: The role of communication in balancing marine tourism and sustainability Tema Milstein .....	104
Sustainable versus UnSustainable Dolphin tourism in the Caribbean: A case study in the Dominican Republic E.C.M. Parsons &amp; Naomi A. Rose .....	114
A wildlife tourism auditing framework...can we build it? Kate Rodger, David Newsome &amp; Amanda Smith .....	128

Adaptive Management for a Recovering Humpback Whale Population in the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Sarah Salmon &amp; Kirstin Dobbs .....	132
Meeting Flipper in the wild: Managing swim with dolphin tourism in Australia Heather Zeppel .....	146

Theme 2: Marine Protected Areas

Quantifying community perceptions of marine environments for Marine Protected Area planning: When is the Reef too crowded? Barbara Bollard-Breen &amp; Daniel Breen .....	168
Tourism as basis for sustainable development in protected coastal areas? Svein Frisvoll &amp; Katrina Rønningen .....	180
The law and policy regulating marine parks in the Asia Pacific – de legere ferenda Mary George .....	186
Quantifying community perceptions of marine environments for Marine Protected Area planning: When is the Reef too crowded? Nina Hall &amp; Jim Sillitoe .....	201
Impacts of the 2004 Tsunami Disaster on Thailand’s Marine Park Tourism: What Did We Learn? Somrudee (Meprasert) Jitpraphai I &amp; James W. Good .....	213
Tourism in the marine national park of Gujarat Prabha Ranade .....	219

Theme 3: The Cruise Ship Industry

Cruise Ship Tourism Research: A Critical Review Brigid Casey .....	236
Protecting paradise: Minimizing the downside of cruise tourism Ross A. Klein .....	242
The socio-economic impacts of cruise tourism: A case study of Croatian destinations Zrinka Marusic, Sinisa Horak &amp; Renata Tomljenovic .....	258
Development of a supply chain model for the cruise industry Funda Yercan &amp; Frank Bates .....	275

Theme 4: Coral Reefs and Scuba Diving/Snorkeling

Keeping and I (and 1.9 million others) on the reef: The sustainability of tourism on the Great Barrier Reef Alexandra Coghlan &amp; Bruce Prideaux .....	293
Fishers, divers, scientists, lawyers, and Marine Protected Areas: The U.S. experience in protecting coral reefs Robin Kundis Craig .....	307
Why Dive? And Why Here? A study of recreational diver enjoyment at a Fijian eco-tourist resort Clare Fitzsimmons .....	322
Upgrading to a better model - a new style of planning in the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Sally Peut &amp; Peter McGinnity .....	342
Keeping the Great Barrier Reef Great – The development of an innovative sustainable tourism partnership Lorelle Schluter, Sally Peut &amp; Lisha Mulqueeny .....	346
Loose lips and sinking ships: Analysing the role of intergovernmental relations in the creation of artificial reefs for sustainable scuba diving tourism in Australia Paul Stolk .....	349

Theme 5: Guides, Interpretation and Education

The role and presence of a guide: Preliminary findings from swim with seal programmes and land-based seal viewing in New Zealand Laura Boren, Neil Gemmell &amp; Kerry Barton .....	366
Educating visitors to the Pacific coast of Washington State: Information dissemination and marine management Rachel More Gregg .....	381
Designing and Assessing Marine Educational Signage with a Marine Environmental Philosophy: Pilot Studies in Puget Sound, Washington State Katrina A. Lassiter &amp; Marc L. Miller .....	388
Whale watching tour guides: Communicating conservation effectively Sheila E Peake .....	404
Environmental education on Rangitoto Island: What do visitors learn from Auckland's Marine volcano? Christian Wittlich .....	423
Marine wildlife tourism: Education and conservation benefits Heather Zeppel &amp; Sue Muloin .....	430

Theme 6: Marine Adventure and Sports Tourism

Dropping in: A case study approach to understanding the socio-economic impact of recreational surfing and its value to the tourism industry Neil Lazarow, Marc L. Miller &amp; Boyd Blackwell .....	448
Family Sailing in the Archipelago Sea, between Finland and Sweden Ole Rud Nielsen .....	462
A geography of charter boat operators in New Zealand Hamish G. Rennie &amp; Jill Thomson .....	467

Theme 7: Marine Festivals, Events, and Heritage

Coastal and Marine Heritage for Tourism: Examples from the North Atlantic Carl Cater &amp; Erlet Cater .....	487
Interest in “virtual” and “real” shrimp related experiences among coastal and shrimp festival tourists in South Carolina, USA Laura W. Jodice &amp; William C. Norman .....	492
Salt and maritime heritage in the Canary Islands Juan Manuel Santana-Pérez .....	509
Environmental impacts and indicators for marine-based sporting events Vikki Schaffer, David Foster &amp; Meredith Lawley .....	519

Theme 8: Coastal and Island Tourism

Developing a Strategic Tourism Plan for Northeast Iceland: Highlands, Whales and the Yulelads John Hull .....	540
The role of physical planning in linking disaster risk reduction to the Development Process: Coastal Tourism Reconstruction in Grand Anse, Grenada Roché Mahon .....	541
At the crossroads: Island tourism in Malaysia Badarussin Mohamed &amp; Azizi Bahauddin .....	558
Linking beach recreation to weather conditions. A case study in Zandvoort, Netherlands Alvaro Moreno, Bas Amelung &amp; Lorena Santamarta .....	565
Responsible environmental practices in Puerto Princesa, Palawan, Philippines John C. Gray .....	577
An integrated coastal management strategy for a proposed marine tourism conservation estate at Nelson Mandela Bay, South Africa Peter B. Myles .....	579

Obstacles to the Adaptive Management of Coastal and Marine Tourism Destinations Anna Palliser .....	587
Sexual harassment: Not just a coastal problem Jill Poulston .....	588
Ecological footprint analysis of road transport related to tourism activity: The case of Lanzarote Island Roberto Rendeiro Martín-Cejas .....	592
Evaporating the Essence: Towards an Understanding of sub-Antarctic Visitation Eric J. Shelton .....	602
Impacts of the Proposed Red-Dead Canal on Sustainable Tourism Development at the Dead Sea Edith M. Szivas .....	611

Theme 9: Research, Sciences, and Marine Tourism

Meeting obligations under the Marine Mammal Protection Regulations 1992 (MMPR) when scientific knowledge is limited Laura Allum .....	616
Unifying ecological and social sciences into a management framework for wildlife based tourism: A case study of feeding stingrays as a marine tourism attraction in the Cayman islands Christina A.D. Semeniuk, Wolfgang Haider &amp; Kristina D. Rothley .....	621
Development of marine research tourism in Australia Peter Wood .....	627

Poster Abstracts

Using fuzzy AHP to develop evaluation criteria for multifunctional development of fishing harbors Chung-Ling Chen .....	640
Proposal for the preservation and rational use of the salt mines from Eastern Venezuela Montserrat Esteve &amp; C. Romero .....	641
Tourism representations of rurality and ‘trail by space’ in Norwegian rural communities Svein Frisvoll .....	642
Disappearing Hector’s and Maui dolphins – the last chance to see them? Jacqueline Geurts .....	643

Are we loving our whales to death? Ensuring the sustainability of a growing whale-watch industry Maryrose Gulesserian, Megan Kessler, Luciana Möller &amp; Rob Harcourt .....	644
Variation in the Acoustic & Behavioural Responses of Inshore Bottlenose Dolphins ( Tursiops aduncus ) to Different types of vessels Elizabeth R. Hawkins .....	645
Responses of Hector's dolphins ( Cephalorhynchus hectori hectori ) to vessel Activity in Akaroa, NZ Emmanuelle Martinez, Dianne H. Brunton &amp; Mark B. Orams .....	646
The value of threatened species to tourism in New Zealand Mark N.H. Seabrook-Davison, Dianne H. Brunton &amp; Mark B. Orams .....	647
Tourism affects the behavioural budget of common dolphins ( Delphinus sp.) in the Hauraki Gulf, New Zealand Karen A Stockin, David Lusseau, Vicky Binedell, Nicky Wiseman &amp; Mark Orams .....	648

Workshop Presentation Abstracts

Workshop I: Seafood Tourism and Aquaculture

Northern Coastal Inspiration: Chefs Sharing Culinary Traditions Across the Northern Periphery John Hull .....	650
Introduction to seafood tourism Laura W. Jodice &amp; William C. Norman .....	651

Workshop II: Interpretation and Education in the Marine Environment

Marine Interpretation and Marine Guides ~ how can we make a difference? Deborah Benham .....	652
Guiding Effectively: experience, knowledge and decision making to reduce tourist impact on New Zealand Laura Boren .....	653
Citizen Scientists as Docents Impact Policy Karen Martin .....	654
Guiding and the Challenges of Incorporating a Model for Creating Cognitive Dissonance in the Visitor Jonathon Spring .....	655
How to capture and captivate tourists to make them care, comprehend and change Caroline Thalund .....	656
Interpretation of Marine Research Peter Wood .....	657